

Greetings in Jesus' Name!

Again, Easter is coming. We look forward to a wonderful Easter Week - a week called Holy and the celebration of Easter. Invite your friends and neighbors to celebrate the Good News with us.

There is a wonderful old story of a man who was traveling in the Pyrenees Mountains in northern Spain. At nightfall, he and his guide pitched a tent. In the morning, the man was roused from his slumber and almost rolled from his bed by a thunderous roar. He grabbed his guide in terror and yelled: "What's happening? Is this the end of the world?" "No," the guide yelled back. "This is not the end of the world. The sun is coming up over the mountains. As the rays of light hit the glaciers, great cracks open up. This is NOT the end of the world. It's the dawn of a new day."

Very soon, we'll experience it again: the dawn of Easter. The dawn of a new day that can only be compared with the first new day - the first day when God's Word was: "Let there be light."

Easter for us is the creation story told anew. On Easter, God's Word redeemed us, redeemed life, for us, forever.

New life, new possibilities, a new day, moving forward in mission as Christ's people at First English.

Join us! Invite others to join us.

Help us beautify the sanctuaries with lilies in honor or memory of loved ones.

How thankful we are for you and your part in being the Church at First English Lutheran Church.

Your Pastors,

Pastor Bauer
