

GAIL EVANS Scholarship

Gail Elizabeth Evans was a long-time, devoted member of First English Lutheran Church. In addition to her love for and dedication to God and family, she possessed a strong belief in the value and joy of receiving an education. In spite of physical limitations, she earned a BS in medical technology and an MS in counseling. Upon her death at an early age, Gail left in her will a bequest to FELC in hopes she might in a small way assist students who have the desire for education that she had.

We have many youth in this congregation who have served not only their church, but the community as well and truly deserve this award.

If you are a young adult from FELC who will be attending a college or university next year and will not be receiving the Church College Covenant Scholarship, please pick up an application.
